President Wilson is pretty well surrounded in his coming in and out by Kentuckians. A hefty young man who halls from Hopkinsville is the secret service man who shadows the President on any particularly demonstrative occasion, and one of his naval aides is Lieut. Berry, of Newport, while the President's pastor, Rev. James H. Taylor, is attached to Kentucky by many strings, one of which is a recently conferred degree of Doctor of Divinity from Central University of Danville.

SIXTY YEARS.

The Right Rev. John J. Nilan, Bishop of Hartford, Conn., on last Sunday celebrated his sixtleth birth-day anniversary. Bishop Nilan was ordened on December 21, 1878, and was consecrated April 28, 1910. There are over 442,000 Catholics in the dicesse, served by 383 priests.

EVER THE SAME.

The Catholic church is always a house of worship and never a political rostrum. The priest who would so far forget his sacred calling as to express the presidents; Notre Dame University, with ninety teachers, 1,150 strong. demonstrative occasion, and one of demonstrative occasion, and one of his naval aides is Lieut. DEATH A SHOCK.

Surrounded by friends and enjoyng a pleasant evening at her Mrs. John H. Coleman, of 2713 West Chestnut street, was stricken with heart disease Monday night. Mrs. cleman was host to a number of friends and neighbors, and up the time of the attack during the last hour of the merry-making was ap-parently in no danger of illness. Suddenly she sank to the floor, surrounded by her guests, who tenderly ore the prostrate form to the bedroom, where she peacefully bassed from this life. Mrs. Coleman peacefully had a wide acquaintance and hroughout St. Charles parish her death is sincerely mourned. Be-sides her husband she is survived by two daughters, Misses Marie and Margaret Coleman; three sons, Frank, Henry and Donald Coleman; a sister, Miss Lottie McDonald, and three brothers, Thomas, Charles and William McDonald. Her funeral was held Thursday morning from St. Charles church, of which she had been a devout member and one of s most earnest workers. The high teem in which Mrs. Coleman was held was attested by the many present at the mass of requiem and the feeling tribute paid her memory by Father Raffo.

FATHER WESTERMANN,

The Rev. Father Westermann, the enerable and beloved pastor of St. Mary's church, Eighth street, is still onfined to St. Joseph's Infirmary. Father Westermann has been a suferer from rheumatism for several years, and while his improvement is rather slow his congregation and friends will be glad to know his condition has changed slightly for the better.

CLERGY APPOINTED.

Rev. P. M. Monaghan, who has en Secretary to Right Rev. Bishop O'Donaghue for the past several years, has been appointed Chaplain at St. Thomas Orphanage, to sucseed Rev. Father James O'Connor. who died last month. Rev. Daniel A. Driscoll, who was ordained in St. Louis on June 11 and read his first mass at St. John's church the Sunday following, has been appointed to ucceed Rev. Father Monaghan as Secretary to the Bishop.

COLESBURG PICNIC.

THIRTEEN NEW BRANCHES.

Supreme President Gaudin, of the Catholic Knights of America, in his August letter announces that since May 1 thirteen new branches have been organized. Reports from many States indicate that there will be a remarkable net increase in membership during the last half of the year.

BISHOP SCHULER.

The consecration of Bishop-elect Schuler, of the new diocese of El Paso, will take place early in September in the Denver Cathedral. The Archbishop of Sante Fe will be the consecrator, assisted by the Bishop of Denver and other dignitaries yet to be chosen,

STUDENT FROM MALACCA.

A student from Malacca, Straits Settlements, lately arrived at the American Foreign Mission Seminary, Ossining, N. Y. He is a Eurasian, about seventeen years of age, speaks English as his native tongue, and has passed auccessfully the Cambridge University preparatory examination. This youth traveled some 15,000 miles to reach Maryknoll, where he desires to prepare FRANK for the priesthood and return to the Far East as a missioner.

CATHOLIC PRESS MEETING.

The Catholic Press Association will hold its fifth annual convention at Toledo, Ohio, immediately following the adjournment of the American Federation of Catholic Societies. Bishop Schrembs will attend and deliver an address. The convention will open August 19 and continue for three days.

ARCHBISHOP'S POPULARITY.

Some time ago Gov. Hammond, of Minnesota, received an invitation from the General Committee of the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco to designate the greatest living citizen of the State of Minesota in order that the exposition might honor him on a day to be set aside later. The Governor appointed the following committee to make the seletcion: Hon. T. D. O'Brien and Henry Von der Weyer, of St. Paul, and John McLain, Rev. J. E. Bushnell, and Dr. Frank Nelson, of Min-neapolis. The St. Paul Pioneer Press, with permission of the committee, opened a popular contest to allow the citizens in general to indicate their preference in the mat- There still remains fair Erin's pride. ter. The committee of course is not bound by this popular vote. The result of the contest, which closed His fame o'ershadowing other lands, Saturday, July 24, showed that the first and second places were won as follows: Most Reverend Archbishop Ireland, 49,904 votes; Dr. Cyrus Northrop, President emritus at the University of Minnesota, 40,153

ORPHAN SOCIETY ELATED.

The Catholic Orphan Society and its officers are much elated over the success of the Fourth of July picnic which cleared over $5,000, an amount sufficient to enable the society to continue the many improvements already begun at both St. Vincent's and St. Thomas' Orphanages. One of the most important of the improvements is the modern laundry, the gift of Owen T. Sullivan, President of the Home Laundry Company and one of the few life members of the society. The machinery and equipment, stationed Sergeant-at-Arms-Thomas Tarpy, at St. Thomas Asylum, has been tried and found perfect in every detail. It has been planned to make the formal presentation to Bishop O'Donaghue 3 o'clock. Every member of the soclety is urged to be present and a cordial invitation is extended the general public. Take the Bardstown road cars to Carter avenue, from where it is but a short walk to St. Thomas Orphanage, where th presentation will take place.

BURNS PROVED FATAL.

With regret we announce the leath of Mrs. Catherine McCann, beloved wife of Owen McCann, which occurred Thursday morning at the family home, 187 Coral avenue. Her death resulted from burns suffered sixteen days before when her cloth ng ignited while she was burning rubbish in the rear yard of her home. Mrs. McCann leaves her husband and four sons, Owen M., Jr., B. Huntoon, Shay and Warren Mc-Cann, and four daughters. Misses Rosana. Catherine, Nellie and Verna McCann. She was a member of the St. Frances of Rome church, from where the funeral took place, CARDINAL GIBBON'S DAY.

The officials of the Panama-Pacific Exposition have requested Cardinal Gibbons to set a date for a "Cardinal Gibbon's day" at the fair The general esteem in which the Baltimore churchman is held prompted the officials to set aside a day in his honor. A special car was offered him to travel across the country, so that he would not be discomforted in the least. While the Cardinal appreciated the honor it was proposed to pay him, he has not reached a decision accepting the invitation.

TOLEDO IS READY. Toledo is now ready for the convention of the American Federation of Catholic Societies, which meets there August 15. This promises to be the largest convention yet held, as nearly all the Catholic national organizations will be represented by their officers, as will also about thirty Catholic institutions of national importance. Practically all the State and diocesan federations will send delegates, those from Louisville being President Peter S. Ganz and Mrs. Ganz, Councilman Thomas Dolan, Jacob Hubbuch, Lawrence J. Mackey, Col. H. A. Vonderheidte and L. H. Rapp.

GIVES ITS SHARE. The parish of the Holy Family, Oldenburg, Ind., comprises only 212 families, but in the work for he Church and State it compare favorably with any of its size. has given the church one Bishop, nine priests and forty-six members to the Franciscan Sisterhood. Of these Sisters, five have celebrated their golden jubilee.

BOGUS PRIEST JAILED.

A man giving the name of Will-iam Bell, of Eddystone, Minn., who was arrested some weeks ago, cused of collecting funds while representing himself as a priest, Rhesina and Coadjutor of Bishop Judge Ralston, in the Quarter Sessions Court and was sentenced ber 16, 1877; died January 2, the County Prison for eighteen months.

MAY LEAVE HOUSE,

Political experts who have been watching the New York State situa-tion are inclined to believe that Representative John J. Fitzgerald. F., Commissary General of the House Committee on Appropriations, has a fair chance to leave the House and become a member of the Supreme Court of the State of New York. Mr. Fitzgerald is prominent in the councils of the Knights o Columbus.

The golden sacerdotal jubilee of Rev. E. W. J. Lindesmith, which was recently celebrated in Cleveland, serves to recall the fact that the military history of the ven-erable priest's family is perhaps the annals. A life-size portrait of Father Lindesmith adorns the walls of the main building at Notre Dame University. A brass plate attached to the frame records the following: Father Lindesmith was a chaplain in the United States army; he is a 5c cousin of nineteen soldiers of the civil war from 1861-1865; a brother-in-law of a soldier of the civil war; the brother of a Lieutenant of the civil war; son of a volunteer soldier of the Seminole Indian war; grandnephew of two soldiers of the war of 1812; grandson of a soldier of the war of 1812; great grandnephew of two soldiers of the Revolutionary war, and a maternal grandson of a war, and a maternal grandson of a soldier of the war of 1798. This portrait is one of the most prized paintings at Notre Dame. Rev. John Cavanaugh, President of the great university, was baptized by Fathen Lindesmith, and preached the sermon in Cleveland on the occasion of his golden jubilee.
